

Gujarati Samaj of Atlanta organized

Pajama Party - 2009

We cordially invite all of our Members & Children to enjoy our first ever Pajama Party event

Parents and Children of our big family (Our Samaj) will have fun under one roof for whole night . Don't miss out this unique opportunity where all members of our family will have lots of fun playing different games, listening to music, dancing and of course eating great food. Goals for such events is to build friendship among members, youth and maintain existing relationships. Last event before going back to school.....
